

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Fizzled military spending

Let's not be too hasty condemning North Korea for wasting a billion dollars on its fizzled rocket launch while its people starve ("Rocket blasts off, quickly falls apart," April 13), when our 1 percent has wasted trillions on fizzled wars while our infrastructure collapses.

Tom Miller, Oakland